Background

Sheffield Wednesday Football Club (SWFC) was founded in 1867 and is the fifth oldest football Club in England. Located in an area of Sheffield used to be known as Owlerton, the Club goes by the nickname "The Owls".

Professional football must better reflect modern Britain. Sheffield Wednesday Football Club (SWFC) in partnership with the Premier League, Professional Footballers Association (PFA), and English Football League (EFL) we are seeking to improve the diversity of football coaches in the professional game to make this area more representative of society and the playing population. As part of our commitment to improving diversity, we are proud to be able to support the Professional Player to Coach Scheme, Season 2024/2025, by providing a high-quality fixed-term employment opportunity to develop under-represented groups within the football industry. The scheme is open to PFA members who are currently under-represented within English professional football coaching workforce. Men and Women coaches from Black, South-Asian and Mixed Heritage backgrounds. We believe that having greater diversity helps the whole club to perform better both on and off the pitch.

What is the Professional Player to Coach Scheme?

PPCS provides a 23-month fixed-term employment opportunity and development programme for the successful candidate. The club will act as the 'base' of employment and the individual will work across a variety of football functions within the club to broaden their learning experience.

The fixed-term employment opportunity will include coaching and observation across the Academy, and collaboration with multi-disciplinary teams. Successful applicants will enter the Premier League's Coach Development Programme which is accredited by Leeds Beckett University. Upon successful completion of the programme, coaches will receive a Diploma in Professional Football Coaching. The development programme includes mentoring, workshops, peer learning, projects, and need-led access to FA/UEFA coaching qualifications.

Objectives of the Scheme

- To increase the number of former professional players from Black, South-Asian and Mixed Heritage backgrounds in full-time coaching positions in English professional football
- To provide coaches on the scheme with a fixed-term employment contract and development opportunities within a Premier League or EFL clubs
- To substantially improve long-term employment prospects for coaches who complete the scheme.
- To provide each of the coaches with their own development programme to ensure that they are appropriately supported to become successful coaches and visible role models
- To assist in diversifying the workforce at Premier League and EFL clubs, promoting a culture of equality, diversity and inclusion
